

Sir:I am writing this notification to tell you of my disenchantment with the FCC's proposal to eliminate XM satellite's transmission of instant traffic and weather. As a subscriber of satellite radio the instant transmission of weather and traffic conditions is of great value to me. I pay for this service and feel that the FCC should not try and regulate the transmission of these broadcasts.